

Ocean Colour Scene, You'll Never Find Me

That's the train on which I'll ride
I will look for a different sky
And you'll never find me down so low again
That's the plane on which I'll fly
I will wake in a different time
And you'll never find me down so low again

I'm looking for someone to lift me up
I'm looking for someone to fill my cup
And you'll never find me down so low again

If I try I might see
All the things that I can be
And you'll never find me down so low again
For all the angels for all the world
This is my truth so you've been told
And you'll never find me down so low again

I'm looking for someone to lift me up
I'm looking for someone to fill my cup
So you'll never find me down so low again
I'm looking for someone to lift me up
I'm looking for someone to fill my cup
So you'll never find me down so low again
And you'll never, never, never, never, never never, never, never
And you'll never find me down so low again
