

Oceans Of Sadness, Again the Wolf Wins

See the sky, passing lie
I will try, countess
For I die, as you try
When our breed will grow

Why can't you see my lightning is real
Ask on my knees for freedom...

Shadowsight
Comes through night, blackened sky, countess
For I die as you sigh
When our breed will grow

Asking myself if this race will survive
Swallow those thoughts
We shall never die
