

Oceans Of Sadness, Hope Is Gone

Hope is gone, feel so small Tried too long, can't hold on...
Hope is gone, feel so wrong
Tried too long, now it's gone...
Never, never...
Hope is gone, feel so wrong
Tried too long, now it's gone...
Holding on to illusions
God, so wrong to carry on Flying on towards the sun
Feel so strong, I'll carry on Carry on... can't be wrong
Eyes... so sufficient...
I can't believe that this nightmare is real, 'cause the pain is so surreal
And the healing nihil... holding on hope that is gone, no...
Eyes... so exquisite...
I can't believe that this nightmare is real, 'cause the pain is so surreal
And the healing nihil... holding on hope that is gone, no...
Bowed to low, been condemned to serve now Desire! Rapid flames contouring their sweet lying! Dishonesty will be punished with crying! Recognise those people by their two-faced expression... snatch - kill - rip their face up
To those who embody love, you fools won't reach far enough
To those who believe in a fate or a destiny
Your fortune is running up, and when you'll be out of luck
Don't count on the people that you helped yourself
... or is this a nightmare after all?
