OCEANS OF SLUMBER, Solitude

I'm sitting here alone in darkness Waiting to be free Lonely and forlorn I am crying

I long for my time to come Death means just life Please let me die in solitude

Hate is my only friend Pain is my father Torment is delight to me

Death is my sanctuary I seek it with pleasure Please let me die in solitude

Receive my sacrifice My lifeblood is exhausted No one gave love and understanding

Hear these words Vilifiers and pretenders Please let me die in solitude, yeah

Earth to earth Ashes to ashes And dust to dust

Earth to earth Ashes to ashes And dust to dust

Sitting here alone in darkness Waiting to be free Lonely and forlorn I am crying

I long for my time to come Death means just life Please let me die in solitude, yeah

Earth to earth Ashes to ashes And dust to dust

Earth to earth Ashes to ashes And dust to dust

Earth to earth Ashes to ashes And dust to dust

Earth to earth
Ashes to ashes
And dust to dust
And please let me die in solitude
