

Ochman, @atutowy, Lights In The Dark

The night hides falling ashes
I promise it'll be too much
Triggered love, it crashes
Our dead come back for just a touch

Pre
Let me go back for one
Light trusts the purest or none
Did dark keep me fun? were done

Chorus
Crippled are my shots, listening to the shadows
Ripples even when water tends to be shallow
I lied in spite of the dark, dark

2 verse
Tried living on with passion
Don't know if it'll be enough
Belittled His attraction
Our dead come back for just a touch
