

Ochman, Storyline

No more, no more promises of love
You bug, you crawl, murder undergone
Looking for answers may hurt for a while
Looking for answers

If I could change this rhyme
To change the storyline
No matter what's right
Fuck yelled out by the choir
There is just one thing I've been
Prayin'
The story theme leads to ends

No more, no more lying about your touch
They stare our war, makes no sense to rush
Let's start a riot, murder undergone
Let's start a riot

If I could change this rhyme
To change the storyline
No matter what's right
Fuck yelled out by the choir
There is just one thing I've been
Prayin'
The story theme leads to ends
If I could change this rhyme
To change a storyline
No matter what's right (Right)
Fuck yelled out by the choir
There is just one thing I've been
Prayin'
The story theme leads to ends

Look into your eyes
As you see mine
Without you, I would rather die
Let's make this right
Find peace of mind
I don't care, we'll be alright
We'll be alright
Alright
