

October Fall, Last To Admit It

Wait for you to come around
Turn and flip the bottle upside down
I'll wait for you
Wait for you to come around
Turn and flip the bottle upside down
I'll wait, I'll wait

Try and knock me down
But I'll stay standing here forever
You won't take what's mine
Try and knock me down
But I'll stay standing here forever
You won't take what's mine
This day, this time, I'll take what's mine

We're sick of waiting for my turn
The more you lose the more I learn
How to be the best
(And I know it's) Getting harder everyday
Look in the mirror three times and say
I've lost control, I've lost

Try and knock me down
But I'll stay standing here forever
You won't take what's mine
Try and knock me down
But I'll stay standing here forever
You won't take what's mine
This day, this time, I'll take what's mine
