

October Fall, Somewhere Is Nowhere

I'm walking fast and time's standing still
The calm ocean blue's waving goodbye to you
Wake up on the beach with sand in my shoe
Now I'm walking nowhere but further from you

I'm under the sun, the wind's picking up
And I grab my necklace and kiss it for luck
My shadow's too scared to stay at my side
Now I'm walking nowhere but I wait this time

(Oh, oh, oh)
Always waiting
(Oh, oh, oh)
Yeah

I'm going somewhere this time
Somewhere is nowhere tonight
Daytime's just for dreaming
The boardwalk's where we find
Somewhere is nowhere tonight

The night's getting dark with changing of tide
And eyelids are closing on top of my eyes
The water rolls up to keep me awake
I stare at the sunset in need of a change

(Oh, oh, oh)
Always waiting
(Oh, oh, oh)
Yeah

I'm going somewhere this time
Somewhere is nowhere tonight
Daytime's just for dreaming
The boardwalk's where we find
Somewhere is nowhere tonight

Going, nowhere
Going, nowhere
Going, nowhere, tonight

I'm going somewhere this time
Somewhere is nowhere tonight
Daytime's just for dreaming
The boardwalk's where we find...

I'm going somewhere this time
Somewhere is nowhere tonight
Daytime's just for dreaming
The boardwalk's where we find
Somewhere is nowhere tonight
