

Odd Project, Ballad For A Liar

Bound by silence
Gagged by lies
Tonight we both die
Choking on hypocrisy
I swallow razorblades
But these lies
They taste so sweet
I've grown to love them
This letter of lies is all I have tonight
It's sealed with a golden sunset
And clear blue skies
I fall away from these broken dreams
These broken dreams of you
I'll bite my tongue for so long
A mouth full of blood
A head full of doubts
With this stomach of lead
There's no way that I can fly
No way I can fly
I can't fly.
Every night that I die
Please watch the stars shine
And in my eyes you were mine
You were mine
This letter of lies is all I have tonight
It's sealed with a golden sunset
And clear blue skies
Forge a heartfelt signature
As you wipe dry eyes
I know I can't handle another goodbye
I can't fly
In your eyes
I can't fly
