

Odd Project, Je T'adore

I'll part the sea
For you I'd break the sky
The heavens aren't worthy
So why am I
You're a fucking masterpiece
A perfect played ensemble
I lose myself in your eyes
Let me take you home
Lying in serenity
You're the image of an angel
Your face so radiant
Even in the darkest hours
I want you to need me
The way I need you
I want you to be obsessed with me
Roses never smelled as sweet as you do
You leave me breathless
Your touch washes all my worries away
How do you do it
I want you to need me the way I need you
I want you to be obsessed with me
This obsession is getting the best of me
