

Of Mice and Men, The Ballad Of Tommy Clayton

We'll bring you to your knees,
You can not see something you can not please.

I met a girl with predictable ways.
Open doors, yeah she's here to stay.
Come clean, just open your mind.
Shut those legs girl it's closing time.

Oh faithful, I'm amazed to find you look that way.
Oh faithful, put away the pills come waste away with me.

You see these hospital walls are full from the bodies of all the dead.
It's spreading around the room just like, wants to be fed.

Bloody hands stop beating hearts.

We'll bring you to your knees, how can you be something you can not see?
We'll bring you to your knees, how can you see something you can not please?

Black, block out the sun, blot out your eyes, pray for the ones you love.
The sun, runs from the sky, beg for your life, pray for the ones you love.

Block out the sun, we'll block out your eyes, pray for daylight.
Your time has come, this is the get off, I can't give up now.

Oh faithful, I'm amazed to find you look that way.
Oh faithful, put away the pills come waste away with me.

It's all in your head.
If you see it, just close those blue eyes like you mean it.
