

Of The Son, Follow You

Hear me Lord I pray
Take my fears away
I know you're in my life
Come and save me
Make me who I am for you

I'll bring you praise until my last breath
I'll follow you, I'll follow you home
Till my heart will beat no more
Now I turn my eyes to heaven
I'll follow you, I'll follow you home
To worship you my God and king
My everything

Let me know you more
Show me who you are
I feel you in my heart
Now I know you saved me
And I long to bring you praise
