

Of The Son, Lion of Judah

And I can see you in my mind
Take it all inside
I know you want what's in my mind

You are Lion of Judah, I come to you today
You are Lion of Judah, all for your grace I pray today

And I can feel you in my soul
Taking all control I know you are what's in my heart

And you can feel it now as he comes
Hear the roar of Lion of Judah
Come take my life and all that I have
All this earth is not what I need
I hate all these things and they all soon will fall away
Come fill my heart as you take everything that is not
