

Of The Wand & The Moon, In a Robe of Fire

Oath in blood and fire - in silver snow
An angel's crimson wings - in moonlit glow
This is the one - my black flamed sun
The honor and the code - of night abode

In a robe of fire - so arcane
My black flamed sun - my six fold flame

In the forest deep - in silent snow
Wolf path lonely trail - in othinn glow
By the light of a lantern red - in the burning of a lantern red
A beacon for the few - a solemn dirge

In a robe of fire - so arcane
Fierce and beautiful - in solstice reign

Lost in winters weave - in woods so cold
This world have lost its soul - don't you know, don't you know
Unleash the winds - and bought in awe
When the twilight falls - upon us all

In a robe of fire - so arcane
My black flamed sun - my six fold flame
