

Of The Wand & The Moon, Raven Chant

...In the silence true consecration comes...
In this silence there shall be a raven chant
And in the chant - all solace
And in this solace true consecration comes

Come on night
Come on moon
Come on winter
And the dead of light
Come on tears
Come on love
Come on cries
In the abode of night
Come on night
Take me home
Come on love
Sing alone
To this Raven chant
Of loss and wore
Raven night
Take me home

In this dawning of the raven tear
Where wolf crave for night
And in that night a chant shall rose
In the temple of dawn
