

Off By One, Change

Things I saw things I see Thing that you wanted me to be
But I can not change

Same routine over again
You call me up just to be my friend
Things are still the same

Been so long since we started
Even longer we've been parted
Doesn't look like we're going to make it
Cause this time I'm not going to take it
Not going to take it anymore, anymore

What you want is what you get
You smile sweet when you're really getting wet
Know you all too well

Same routine, your back again
You say our story never had an end
There's nothing to tell

Been so long since we started
Even longer we've been parted
Doesn't look like we're going to make it
cause this time I'm not going to take it
not going to take it anymore

Strange, mixed, up, world, where the, girl, uses, the,
boy, till, she, gets,
horny, for, other, guy,
Its hello then good bye

Same routine your back again
You say our story never had an end
There's nothing to tell

Been so long since we've started
Even longer we've been parted
Doesn't look like we're going to make it
Cause this time I'm not going to take it

Been so long since we've started
Even longer we've been parted
Doesn't look like we're going to make it
Cause this time I'm not going to take it
Not going to take it anymore

Not going to take it anymore
