

Off By One, Finish Line

I know I could be the one you want
It's just that you don't know it yet
But soon you're gonna see,
I would wait a million years for you
Walk around the world, where you
Are is where I'll be

Until the end, until the end

I want you I know I want you
I want you I know I want you

Every night and every day
I'll do anything you say
Say tonight, I can stay
I want you is that ok

So when you're telling me that we're just friends
Sure why not, I can pretend
But don't you know that I
I will wait until the time is right
Maybe it will be tonight
Tomorrow I might die

Until the end, until the end

I want you I know I want you
I want you I know I want you

Every night and everyday
I'll do anything you say
Say tonight, I can stay
I want you is that ok

And when your world turns dark
And all your roads are blocked
And everything's gone wrong
I'll help you to be strong
I'm right here next to you
And everything you do
One day hopefully you'll want me

till the end

I want you I know I want you
I want you I know I want you

Every night and everyday
I'll do anything you say
Say tonight, I can stay
I want you is that ok
