

Offer Nissim, Be My Boyfriend

Your eyes are breaking walls
Touch my direction, I feel the windows
I'm standing here it's cold
I want you to hold

You have no clue how much I want you
No idea how much I need you here
I want you to hold

(2X)
So much you wanna do
But I want you to be my boyfriend
You're messing with my head
But I want you bad, be my boyfriend

(3X)
I'm so lost without you, baby what would I do
Everywhere we want to go over I see you

Your eyes are breaking walls
Towards my direction, I feel the wind blows
I'm standing here in this cold
I want you to hold

So much you wanna do
But I want you to be my boyfriend
You're messing with my head
But I want you bad, be my boyfriend

I'm so lost without you, baby ____
Everywhere we want to ____
