

Officer Negative, The Winter Has Past

(x2)

I am a Rose
A lily among thorns

You have taken me
I am faint with love
Strengthen me, refresh me
I am faint with love
Your left arm is under my head
Your right arm embraces me
Aroused and awakened with love
I so desire, my lover

(x2) The winter has past Flowers appearing The season of singing
Blossoming vines spread your fragrance Arise My darling

(x2) Until the day breaks and the shadows flee Turn my lover
There is no flaw in you, Oh, well of flowing water Turn my lover

You are a seal Over my heart
