

Oh Wonder, In And Out Of Love you're like goddamn dynamite lit up in a perfect way you're the match

that made me strike crazy little renegade

so many nights
to find the one I had 'em on repeat right when I thought my days were done you showed the sun to me if it wasn't for you I'd always be in and out of love lying in the wrong rooms and knowing it wasn't quite enough I am trying hard to say that even if I'd never seen your face I'd be waitin' for you and always be in and out and in and out of love
