

Okay, Asleep

I sure hope you keep that part of you where I'm at.

Yesterday I had to shutdown just to get through.

Half asleep, half aware, a machine, I don't care.
Half asleep, half prepared, I can't keep what's not there.

I'm afraid, I'm no fun, I'm nothing, I'm no one.
Give me faith that you won, what the hell has it done.

Just today, just for fun, love something, love someone.
