

Old Dead Tree, By The Way

By the way
The more I think about this sad story
The more I feel deceived
Couldn't I have been betrayed after all?
Anyway
I understand that things have changed in your life
Should I feel guilty about that?
No I won't come maskless
Anymore..
All this ime
I did my best to protect my integrity
But it's a lost cause now
My will to believe in humanity
Simply sank and faded away
The vanishing pride of a mortal man
Everyday
Since this evening of torment
This bloody argument
I felt so guilty
And evil
