

Old Man's Child, Doommaker

The night calls
as the evening light fades cast your shadow
and cover this earth
bury the surface and possess the nights dark come forth, put spells on my thoughts.

I am the master of de cease
I am the pain that grows within your soul
I am this worlds doom maker.

From another world
He arise from the ruins
which will be their graves spawn of satan
gather as one and set this world in flames.

We are the seeds of fire spreading in the wind Masters of your sorrow
And now, we will bring you down.
has corrupted my soul.

We are the master of de cease
We are the pain that grows within your soul
We are this worlds doom maker.
