

Old Man's Child, Path Of Destruction

Where is my god, the saviour of faith
As I'm wandering here through this world I created
I am a lonely killer
And I am trapped in despair
Death is my path
Fallen to madness
In a world of my own
I worship the beast
And I am his son
Fear the wolf
In a case of fire
I am trapped
Burning my soul
Lost in the secrets of pain
And I give no remorse
I will find those hidden
On my path of destruction
Where to hide
When your blood is bound
Where to hide
When the moon shows the way
