

Old Man's Child, World Expiration

[Lyrics by Galder]

Earthlings beware
Under a fading sun you will await the new age
Earthlings behold
The birth of a new dawn, the sign of damnation

The rage of magic thunder
The storms of magic fire
Rumbles through the sky

Again his wrath shall rule this earth
As foreseen in the genesis of death

The earthlings' paradise
Come watch as it dies, destruction of mankind
Enter the realms of sin
And in to the dark voids of hell
