

Oleander, Down When I'm Loaded

Who is to blame for the way that you are, the things that you say and
All the things that you do.
Who is to blame for the way that you feel, the way that your living and
The way that you deal.
Who is right when everyone is wrong was it fate that brought you here
Against all your wishes
Who is to blame for the way that you are was it parental supervision or
The lack thereof
I get down when I'm loaded
Down when I'm loaded
Oh I get down
Who is to blame for the reasons you feel like it's an all or nothing
Kind of situation
Who is right when everyone is wrong was it fate That brought you here
Against all your wishes
It's the sound of super sad
It's the kind of shit that makes me angry
Your bad, oh waisting your time, your irresponsibility
Yeah, so educated, sooooo
I get down when I'm loaded
Down when I'm loaded
Oh I get down
I get down when I'm loaded
Down when I'm loaded
Oh I get down
