

Oleander, It's A Reason

It's the reason
For my pain
In a season
To celebrate I don't wanna be full of hate For any body
but it's too late

Everyone has been in my face tellin' me that I'm a disgrace
showin' me things that I must face
tellin' me that
They need their space

I can't love you anymore
I'm scared of the sound of it

It's the reason why I'm down I'm beatin
and pushed around hit the ceilin'
without a sound
Everyone I know
Considers me a clown

I can't love you anymore
I'm scared of the sound of it
And woman I just wanted more

I can't love you anymore
yeah
I'm scared of the sound of it
And woman I just wanted more

It's the reason why I'm here
It's the reason why I'm here
It's the reason why I'm here
It's the reason why I'm here
