

Oliver Tree, Essence (feat. Super Computer)

Baby you're my essence, you make me lose my mind
I can't live a day here without you by my side
I won't ever leave you, I need you in my life
Without you I'm nothing

What would I do without you here
Life would not be the same, my dear
I feel like I would disappear
Sounds a lot but I'm so sincere

Baby you're my essence, you make me lose my mind
I can't live a day here without you by my side
I won't ever leave you, I need you in my life
Without you I'm nothing

Baby you are my essence
Let me make a confession
You're all I talk about when you're not around
I need you in my presence

You always know what to say to me
You're everything from my A to Z
You're the only thing saving me
I need you now

Baby you're my essence, you make me lose my mind
I can't live a day here without you by my side
I won't ever leave you, I need you in my life
Without you I'm nothing

What would I do without you here
Life would not be the same, my dear
I feel like I would disappear
Sounds a lot but I'm so sincere

Baby you're my essence, you make me lose my mind
I can't live a day here without you by my side
I won't ever leave you, I need you in my life
Without you I'm nothing

Baby you're my essence, you make me lose my mind
I can't live a day here without you by my side
I won't ever leave you, I need you in my life
Without you I'm nothing
