

Oliver Wakeman Band, Walk away

Do you ever believe do you ever fear to breathe do you ever feel so small and all alone could you never catch your breath and do you sometimes pray for death do you ever feel remorse for what you've done
I don't want you to turn around and walk away - walk away I don't want you to turn around and walk
I don't want you to turn around and walk away - walk away I don't want you to turn around and walk I move quickly by just don't leave me here to die your heart of stone is harder than your lies if I could only make you see what it could really mean to me a single word a glance from eye to eye
I don't want you to turn around and walk away - walk away I don't want you to turn around and walk
I don't want you to turn around and walk away - walk away I don't want you to turn around and walk
