

Olivia Dean, Ladies Room

I would take fifty percent of the blame
Nah, it's all my fault ('cause I left you there)
No, it's my fault, I did it (Keytar incoming)
If I didn't move over there, it wouldn't of been-
Thank you, I appreciate it
Don't kick up a fuss, when I'm feeling independent
Don't mean you're not enough, I thought we had some trust
So, why you lying? I ain't buying that
I told you what it was
You protecting, overstepping, no, I don't have to choose
This is way less about me a-and way more about you
I love being in your space, sometimes I need some room
I won't hear you call if you call, so (ooh)
Darling, don't do that with me (ooh)
I need you to see (ooh)
Darling, you still belong to me (ooh)
And it's not that deep
Tryna lose my head, so good, I forget (ooh)
Even if you left, I'm not going home yet (ooh-ah)
You been sleeping on me, boy, get out of bed (ooh)
Even if you left, I'm not going home yet, yeah
Doing it for me (whoa), put myself on top
That love on top, bring me some release
It's that therapy, it's okay, no you don't have to Give me everything (everything), I got everything (got everything)
You're projecting, overstepping (ooh), no, I don't have to choose
This is way less about me and-and, and way more about you
I love being in your space (ooh), sometimes, I need some room
I won't hear you call if you call, so (ooh)
Darling, don't do that with me (ooh)
I need you to see that (ooh)
Darling, you still belong with me (ooh)
And it's not that deep
Tryna lose my head, so good, I forget
Even if you left, I'm not going home yet
You been sleeping on me, boy, get out of bed
Even if you left, I'm not going home yet, yeah
Not going, going, not going, going
Hmm, mhm, mmm
Not going, going (whoa), not going, going
I'm tryna live, not going, going, not going, going
Yeah, mhm-mhm
Not going, going, not going, going
So, yeah
So, so good (whoa)
I lose my head, so good, forget (yeah)
I lose my head, so good (whoa)
I lose my head, so good, forget
I lose my head, so good
