

Olivia Lufkin, Lliquid Skies

Once upon a time, there was a mermaid who felt like something was missing in her life but she didn't know what it was.
One starlight night, she swam up to the surface and met a pegasus soaring above her, he told her about his world of wings and it resonated like a dream...
"Tobi" or not to be a dream is never just a dream I dream of light
it's so dark down here
