

Olivia Lufkin, Space Halo

You tell me you love me I watch you look out the window
Into the luminous blue sky
With eyes of loneliness
As if you had to go
What will it take to win your smile?
Does it help for you to know
That nothing can break my love for you
Believe in me, if you need to believe
Look into my eyes
Deep in my eyes
I wish you would let go
Of your space halo
Come down here and live with me.
Live with me
The fear begins to creep in
The distance begin to grow
I can't find the right words to say
I need to know it's okay
Okay
How am I suppose to hold you at ease
How am I suppose to know you love me
How am I suppose to hold you at ease
How am I suppose to know you love me
How am I suppose to hold you at ease
How am I suppose to know you love me
I wish I could make you
Truly happy
So you would never want to Leave this world
I wish you would let go
Of your space halo
Come down here and live with me.
Live with me
