

Olivia Newton-John, Crying, Laughing, Loving, Lying

(Labi Siffre)

Crying, crying never did nobody no good no how
That's why I don't cry
That's why I don't cry

Laughing, laughing sometimes does somebody some good somehow
That's why I--I'm laughing now
That's why I--I'm laughing now

Loving, loving never did me no good no how--no how
That's why I can't love you now
That's why I can't love you now

Lying, lying never did nobody no good no how--no how
So why am I lying now?
So why am I lying now?
So why am I lying now?
