Olivia Newton-John, Every Face Tells A Story

(M. Allison/P. Sills/D. Black)

There's no need for you to tell me I can see the way you feel I just know without you saying What is a lie and what's real

Every face tells a story It's hard to hide a lie Every face tells a story And yours is saying goodbye

Something's going on, and I know it You can't keep it from me Your smile cannot hide what you feel inside And I don't like what I see

Every face tells a story It's hard to hide a lie Every face tells a story And yours is saying goodbye

You're always telling stories You're always telling me lies You're always telling stories

If you want to leave me, leave me No good living a lie You can pretend that we're not gonna end But your eyes are saying goodbye

Every face tells a story It's hard to hide a lie Every face tells a story And yours is saying goodbye

Tell me, I got a right to know Pour your little heart out to me, baby You know, you know I don't want to let go

Every face tells a story It's hard to hide a lie Every face tells a story And yours is saying goodbye
