

Olivia Newton-John, So Strange

(John farrar)

My dream fades in the darkness
Somewhere in the rain
Wind-blown
Island alone on a sea of pain

So deep, so blue, so strange

Will your face forever haunt me?
will your heart ever want me?
Can I ever hope that you might reach out to me?

'Cos I've been believin'
My fears were in vain
And I have to tell you
I'm in a sea of pain

So deep, so blue, so strange
