

Olivia Newton-John, Wrap Me In Your Arms

(Harlan Collins)

Understand I am afraid on my feet
Show me a seat
And give me a chance to recover my strength
And at length I will join in the dance
As you can see I'm all out of time
So scared to stand and swing with the band
Won't you give me your hand
You seem so strong and handsome to me
We'll dance

Wrap me in your arms again
Your touch is so much
It's enough
Wrap me in your arms again
I'm dancing my way into love

I must confess I've been on the floor often before
But men stepped on my toes and now God only knows
I was bound to come on to this sweet romance
Now we'll dance

Wrap me in your arms again
Your touch is so much
It's enough
Wrap me in your arms again
I'm dancing my way into love

Wrap me in your arms again
Your touch is so much
It's enough
Wrap me in your arms again
I'm dancing my way into love
