

Olivia Rodrigo, logical master manipulator god you're so good at what you do come for me like a savior and i'd put myself through hell for you hear all the rumors lately that you always denied

i fell for you like water falls from the february sky but now the current's stronger i couldn't get out if i tried but you convinced me baby it was all in my mind and now you got me thinking two plus two equals five and i'm the love of your life cuz if rain don't pour and sun don't shine then changing you is possible no, love is never logical you built a giant castle with walls so high i couldn't see the way it all unraveled and all the things you oh and now you got me thinking

two plus two equals five and i'm the love of your life
cuz if rain don't pour and sun don't shine then changing you is possible i guess love is never logical the sky is green the grass is red and you mean all those words you said i'm sure that girl is really your friend our problems are all so cuz loving you is loving every argument you held over my head brought up the girls you could have instead said i was too young, i was too soft can't take a joke, can't get you o□ oh why do i do this i look so stupid thinking

two plus two equals five and i'm the love of your life
cuz if rain don't pour and sun don't shine then changing you is possible
logical logical
love is never logical
i know i'm half responsible and that makes me feel horrible oh logical logical
i know i could've stopped it all god why didn't i stop it all
