

Ollie, holding on

Say that I'm fine, but you know my eyes say the words that i wont, carefully lie, tell that I'm happy while i hurt the most, hurt the most, don't know why im quick to fight this all alone, I found the piece I missed but the scar keeps holding

Now i jus feel like im numb, im numb I rather die than live on the run, the run cause i just feel like im numb, im numb an nothing can get this off my mind, my mind

It's dragging me down, it's dragging me down, my face in the ground, its dragging me down

I cant hold back all the pain, when these memories hurt the same, tears like words my heart wont s
