Oman Freestyle, The Madness

The madness is creeping in Intoxicating with its scent My mind numb, my head spins Memories coming with each breath

Drowning in who you were Yearning for who you are Drawing in a breath Can't help but feel you in my heart

Once perfect Once loved Once yours Once mine My fault My collapse The anguish The madness Is creeping in

Your warmth beside me Your breath caressing I'd never let you go But where's the feeling

I lost you, but I need you I wish for you But I wonder if I had you Maybe you had me

Once perfect Once loved Once yours Once mine My fault My collapse The anguish The madness Is creeping in
