harder times that I made you laugh what about the times when I cheered you up when u was hurt and u was sad

OMARION

Seems like yesterday you were my woman shopping malls and holidays could'nt tell us nothing now you're all up in my house wit another brother and I'm thinking to myself I'm out to kill this motherf**ker and I say girl I'm sorry, even though I know it's late for apologies babe how could you do this to me, you was supposed to have my baby

I'm tryna act like I don't wanna be with you, like I would be ok if you just walked away I'm tryna act like I don't wanna see you like you was just a phase, I forget you in a couple of days tryna act like I can do without feeling on yo booty find another ghetto cutie, to do me like you do me baby girl I'm just so addicted to you, Imma try but I can't, cause you're all I'm tryna do yeah yeah

I see you here and there with your friends and I start that frontin' act like I've been doin' my thing and I don't need your lovin' but I see it in your eyes girl you want me back, and I give anything just to have you back memories that you got you're my homie, I don't know what to do, you confuse me girl this is crazy you're supposed to have my baby

I'm tryna act like I don't wanna be with you,
like I would be ok if you just walked away I'm tryna act like I don't wanna see you (see you) like you was just a phase, I forget you in a couple of days (couple of days)
tryna act like I can do without feeling on yo booty

but I guess that's something I gotta live with If I could then I would turn back the hands of time girl
