

Omen, Hell's Gates

Hell's Gates

Evil winds howl cross the frozen plain
Demons fury floods my mind again
Multitudes of homeless wander
Lost and scared
Into the burning lake of fire
They are dared

Hells gates open with a dream
Feel the fire lick your body clean
Hell waits the time is soon at hand
Hells gates will open where you stand

Another shaded face among the crowd
Mindless voices screaming right out loud
Ghostly chanting ringing in my head
Shaping frightful visions of the
Tortured and the dead

CHORUS

Pages turn sinners burn
Judgement comes to all
Satans rule for the fool
Who never saw the fall
Days will end God will send
His only son to slay
The demon seed of hate and
Greed has eternal debts to pay
