

Omnisoul, Home To Home

Its gonna be beautiful I told you so,
I told you so.

Its gonna be so much like you said it was in dreams ago.
Well take down the richest man and see the world again.
Well show him the lies he told and make him pay the debt,
And well go

(Home to home)
Ive got that feeling again.

You dont know what it feels like, baby.
You dont know what it feels like.
You dont know what it feels like, baby.
You dont know what it feels like, baby.

What are you hiding from?
You know theres resolution for all your wrongs to come, yeah.
Well talk it up; tell someone a big shot will spread his worth.
Help me take down the richest man and see the world again.
Well show him the lies he told and make him pay the debt,
Just like you,
And well go.

(Home to home)
Ive got that feeling again.

You dont know what it feels like, baby.
You dont know what it feels like.
You dont know what it feels like, baby.
You dont know what it feels like, baby.

Well take down the richest man and see the world again.
Well show him the lies he told and make him pay the debt,

You dont know what it feels like, baby.
You dont know what it feels like.
You dont know what it feels like, baby.
You dont know what it feels like, baby, yeah
