

OMR, In The Sunrise (Omar Rudberg)

Ooh, in the sunrise
[Everything's over, morning's getting closer
I know it's the last time
This won't be forever, so give me all you got

We both know what we're heading for
We're on a one way road to letting go
Turning round is impossible
We got nothing to hold back anymore

Speed it up, yeah, yeah
Feel the rush when we touch
'Cause we know what we're heading for
Listen to me when I tell you

Ooh, in the sunrise
Everything's over, morning's getting closer
I know it's the last time
This won't be forever, so give me all you got
Ooh, in the sunrise
Everything's over, morning's getting closer
I know it's the last time
This won't be forever, so give me all you got

Put your lips all over me
The last kiss will taste so bittersweet
We can't save what we used to be
You don't have to treat me so carefully

Speed it up, yeah, yeah
Feel the rush when we touch
Put your lips all over me, yeah
Listen to me when I, when I tell you

Ooh, in the sunrise
Everything's over, morning's getting closer
I know it's the last time
This won't be forever, so give me all you got
Ooh, in the sunrise
Everything's over, morning's getting closer
I know it's the last time
This won't be forever, so give me all you got

Everything's over, morning's getting closer
Oh no, no, no

Ooh, in the sunrise
Everything's over, morning's getting closer
I know it's the last time
This won't be forever, so give me all you got
