

On Thorns I Lay, Moving Cities

Can you feel my pain ?
I leave me hands to you I'm coming to an end and everything will be so real

What you mean to me you see moments that sign in time again because everything pains me deep False hopes pain and death Never been able to read me for everything that suffered me
because everything pains me deep Ashes forever will be
