

One Fine Day, Burn a fire within

Lets go!

Theres a fire within,
keeps me alive and goin
for this obsession
missin any cure.

Can you hear the voices questioning your choices?

Demand to confess
and watchin you for sure

Red hot, alight

Red hot, alight

burn burn tonight

burn burn tonight

we set the world on fire

we set the world on fire.

are you ready for another

unrequested bother

what do you prefer-

pride or vanity?

if you go your own way

no one leads you astray

light it with fire,

your burning destiny

Red hot, alight

Red hot, alight

burn burn tonight

burn burn tonight

we set the world on fire

we set the world on fire.
