

One Minute Silence, I Feel Nothing

I want to kill myself
I want to live my life
Yesterday woke again today
Right now I feel like

Be myself
I want to be your life
Nobody goes where I go please go
Leave me now before I...

Turn and run and find a place to hide
Anywhere but here is not goodbye
Fuck the world we live in let it die
No-one seems to care so why should I?
All the flowers inside my head have died
Now I see it all through tainted eyes
Fix me up on life I need a high
I can't face you when I'm

I wanna lose myself
In a place you'll find
Hope is the only friend I know
I hope you need me

Save myself
Can you take this life?
Happiness comes to those who wait
I've waited here I'm tired

Turn and run and find a place to hide
Anywhere but here is not goodbye
Fuck the world we live in let it die
No-one seems to care so why should I?
All the flowers inside my head have died
Now I see it all through tainted eyes
Fix me up on life I need a high
I can't face you when I'm
I can't face you when I'm
I can't face you, I feel nothing
I feel nothing
I feel nothing
I feel nothing

Turn and run and find a place to hide
Anywhere but here is not goodbye
Fuck the world we live in let it die
No-one seems to care so why should I?
All the flowers inside my head have died
Now I see it all through tainted eyes
Fix me up on life I need a high
I can't face you when I'm
