

One Night Only, It's About Time

So many new faces, familiar places,
But I found my tracks to their hearts.
And all the people I already know,
I hope I left with a place in their hearts,
Because they left with a place in my heart.

Ooohh...

It's about time you're back in my life,
'Cos I miss you honey.
It's about time you're back in my sight,
'Cos I need you.

So all of these faces and brand new places,
And a fresh start to my life.
And now I know where I wanna go,
I'm gonna make sure I do it just right,
'Cos if I don't things won't feel right.

Ooohh...

Yes it's about time you're back in my life,
'Cos I miss you honey.
It's about time you're back in my sight,
'Cos I need you honey.

But I don't need you honey,
But I still miss you.
But then it came so clearly
That I don't need you anymore.

My best advice is to comprehend,
Ditch this tention, make amends
For the new times,
Not old times.

Ooohh...

It's about time you're back in my life,
'Cos I miss you honey.
Yes it's about time you're back in my sight,
'Cos I need you, ooohh...
