

One Night Only, Just For Tonight

Way across the plains
The lights spell out a code.
No one knows where they take us,
But we'll search 'til we grow old.
All the paths they lead
To the single solemn place.
Then we'll stay for a weekend
And leave without a trace.

Just for tonight.
Just maybe we've made it.
Sing like you want this,
Sing like you want this.

Just for tonight.
Just maybe we've made it.
Sing like you want this,
Sing like you want this.

We can take tonight,
Take our time.
So sing like you need this
And be who you want to.
All the paths they lead
To a little standing place.
If you stay for a weekend
You'd leave without a trace.

Just for tonight.
Just maybe we've made it.
Sing like you want this,
Sing like you want this.

Just for tonight.
Just maybe we've made it.
Sing like you want this,
Sing like you want this.

Lalalala lalalalala.
Lalalala lalalalala.
Lalalala lalalalala.

Just for tonight,
Just for tonight.
Just maybe we've made it.
Sing like you want this,
Sing like you want this.

Just for tonight.
Just maybe we've made it.
Sing like you want this,
Sing like you want this.
