

One Night Only, Start Over

So what would you do if he said to keep up your chin girl?
Would you change your mind and go back behind these times?
I'd wish you'd want to.
So tell you what do you think we should do now we're alone here?
Please don't change your mind, in hope to stop, maybe try to start again here.

Start over, it's all over,
You're trying to tell me I'm not right.
Oh oh oh.
Start over, it's all over,
'Cos freedom here, well it's a lie,
It's a lie.

So tell me what do you think when we say that you are easy?
Baby take your time and gather up your stuttered words and tell me I'm right.

Start over, it's all over,
You're trying to tell me I'm not right.
Oh oh oh.
Start over, it's all over,
'Cos freedom here, well it's a lie,
It's a lie.

We should start over, it's all over,
You're trying to tell me I'm not right.
Oh oh oh.
Start over, it's all over,
'Cos freedom here, well it's a lie,
It's a lie.
