One Night Only, Stay At Home

Stay at home tonight.
Please give me one night.
I wish I could use your eyes to see what it's like,
But something else was on my mind.

You wanted me to stay at home, but I didn't want to.
I didn't want to feel alone or forgotten.

Because I wanted to go out, to make everybody smile.
Yes I wanted to go out, to waste my time in the sunshine.

Is it my fault? No not this time.
I'm trying to say, I don't wanna play your game.
There's something you should know, but I'm not gonna tell you.
I started to smile as you put out the fire because it feels right.

I started to smile as you put out the fire because it feels right. [x2]

You wanted me to stay at home
But I didn't want to.
No, no, I didn't want to feel alone,
Or forgotten.

Because I wanted to go out,
To make everybody smile.
Yes I wanted to go out,
To waste my time in the sunshine.

Because I wanted to go out,
To make everybody smile.
Yes I wanted to go out,
To waste my time in the sunshine.

I wanted to go out,
To make everybody smile.
Yes I wanted to go out,
To waste my time in the sunshine.

Is it my fault? No not this time.
I'm trying to say, I don't wanna play your game.
There's something you should know, but I'm not gonna tell you.
I started to smile as you put out the fire because it feels right.
I started to smile as you put out the fire because it feels right.
